

The Fruits of First Fruits

Jubilees 6:15-19

15 And He gave to Noah and his sons a sign that there should not again be a flood on the earth. 16. He set His bow in the cloud for a sign of the eternal covenant that there should not again be a flood on the earth to destroy it all the days of the earth. 17. For this reason it is ordained and written on the heavenly tables, that they should celebrate the feast of weeks in this month once a year, to renew the covenant every year.

Jubilees 6:1-2,4, 15-19

1. And on the new moon of the third month he went forth from the ark, and built an altar on that mountain. 2. And he made atonement for the earth, and took a kid and made atonement by its blood for all the guilt of the earth; for everything that had been on it had been destroyed, save those that were in the ark with Noah.

4. And Ahayah smelt the goodly savour, and He made a covenant with him that there should not be any more a flood to destroy the earth; that all the days of the earth seed-time and harvest should never cease; cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night should not change their order, nor cease for ever.

18. And this whole festival was celebrated in heaven from the day of creation till the days of Noah- thirty-three jubilees and one weeks of years; and Noah and his sons observed it for seven jubilees and one week of years, till the day of Noah's death, and from the day of Noah's death his sons did away with (it) until the days of Abraham, and they ate blood. 19. But Abraham observed it, and Isaac and Jacob and his children observed it up to thy days, and in thy days the children of Israel forgot it until ye celebrated it anew on this mountain.

Jubilees 1:1-2

1. And it came to pass in the first year of the exodus of the children of Israel out of Egypt, in the third month, on the sixteenth day of the month, that Alahayim spake to Moses, saying: "Come up to Me on the Mount, and I will give thee two tables of stone of the law and of the commandment, which I have written, that thou mayst teach them."

Jubilees 6:20-22

20. And do thou command the children of Israel to observe this festival in all their generations for a commandment unto them: one day in the year in this month they shall celebrate the festival. 21. For it is the feast of weeks and the feast of first-fruits: this feast is twofold and of a double nature: according to what is written and engraven concerning it celebrate it. 22. For I have written in the book of the first law, in that which I have written for thee, that thou shouldst celebrate it in its season, one day in the year, and I explained to thee its sacrifices that the children of Israel should remember and should celebrate it throughout their generations in this month, one day in every year.

2Es 3:20 And yet tookest thou not away from them a wicked heart, that thy law might bring forth fruit in them

2Es 9:32 But our fathers, which received the law, kept it not, and observed not thy ordinances: and though the fruit of thy law did not perish, neither could it, for it was thine;

2Es 9:33 Yet they that received it perished, because they kept not the thing that was sown in them.

2Es 9:34 And, lo, it is a custom, when the ground hath received seed, or the sea a ship, or any vessel meat or drink, that, that being perished wherein it was sown or cast into,

2Es 9:35 That thing also which was sown, or cast therein, or received, doth perish, and remaineth not with us: but with us it hath not happened so.

2Es 9:36 For we that have received the law perish by sin, and our heart also which received it

2Es 9:37 Notwithstanding the law perisheth not, but remaineth in his force.

Jasher 1:14

14. And the boys grew up and their father gave them a possession in the land; and Cain was a tiller of the ground, and Abel a keeper of sheep. 15. And it was at the expiration of a few years, that they brought an approximating offering to Ahayah, and Cain brought from the fruit of the ground, and Abel brought from the firstlings of his flock from the fat thereof, and Alahayim turned and inclined to Abel and his offering, and a fire came down from Ahayah from heaven and consumed it. 16. And unto Cain and his offering Ahayah did not turn, and He did not incline to it, for he had brought from the inferior fruit of the ground before Ahayah, and Cain was jealous against his brother Abel on account of this, and he sought a pretext to slay him.
